

Program Schedule

8:00-8:15 Coffee/Registration

8:15 Welcome Remarks:
Deborah Reed-Danahay, Director, UB Center for European Studies

8:30-10:30 Session I: “Representations and Circulation”

“The Fall of Troy and the Origins of Europe,”
Marilynn Desmond (Binghamton University, SUNY)

“Turkish Sunni Transnational Migrations and Circuits of Knowledge,” Kimberly Hart (SUNY Buffalo State)

“How Prominent is Immigrant Integration Discourse in the Press? Results from a 5-Country Study,” Alexander Caviedes (SUNY Fredonia)

Session Chair: John Abromeit (SUNY Buffalo State)

10:30-11:00 Coffee Break

11:00-1:00 Session II: “Security, Care, and Borders”

“The Circulation of Care in Times of Austerity: Immigrant Domestic Workers in Greece,” Deborah Altamirano (SUNY Plattsburgh)

“Identity in Europe: Security Implications for the EU and the US,”
John D. Occhipinti (Canisius College)

“The Variable Geometry of Circulation at Europe’s Border and Boundaries,” Thomas M. Wilson (Binghamton University, SUNY)

Session Chair: Vasiliki Neofotistos (University at Buffalo, SUNY)

1:00-2:00 Lunch Break

2:00-4:00 Session III: “Science, Nature, and Identity”

“National Identity and Eugenicist Debates in Interwar Britain,”
Eileen Lyon (SUNY Fredonia)

“Bear Ceremonialism in the 21st Century: A Comparative Analysis of the Commodification of Nature and Authenticity in Contemporary Europe and North America,” Thomas Dunk (Brock University)

“Crossing Borders to Discover a German Land Ethic: German and German-American Observations on American Farming,” Scott A. Moranda (SUNY Cortland)

Session Chair: Colleen Culleton (University at Buffalo, SUNY)

4:00-4:30 Final Remarks
Randy Schiff, UB Department of English

5:00-6:00 Reception
Lower Gallery, Center for the Arts

6:00-7:30 Keynote Address
The Screening Room, Center for the Arts

Welcome by Deborah Reed-Danahay

Remarks by Charles F. Zukoski, Provost, University at Buffalo

Remarks by John J. Wood, Senior Associate Vice Provost for International Education

Introduction by Sasha D. Pack, UB Department of History

Keynote Address: “The EU Challenged: Populism and Nationalism in Today’s Europe”

Ángel Viñas, Professor Emeritus of Economics and History, Complutense University of Madrid